| Skills / Experience/Background: I have worked in education for over 13 years and during this time, I have held roles including; class teacher, English lead, Key Stage 1 lead, Key Stage 2 lead, Designated Safeguarding Person and headteacher. I am currently the Deputy Headteacher at Broughton Junior School, a position I have held for 4 years and I was proud to be part of the governing body when we federated the Infant and Junior School together. Prior to teaching, I graduated from Leeds University with a degree in Art History and completed a post-grad course in Museum Management. With this training, I worked for several years in the museum sector – developing educational spaces and programmes for children across the country. It was my knowledge of this creative and experiential side to learning that prompted me to retrain as a teacher. I live in a village just outside Tring with my husband and our two boys (8 years and 4 years). | |
